

Ann Godbehere
Member of the Executive Committee
Chief Financial Officer

Ann Godbehere was appointed Chief Financial Officer of Swiss Re Group on 1 April 2003. She also joined the Executive Board and became a member of the Executive Committee.

Ms Godbehere, a Canadian and British citizen born in 1955, qualified as a Certified General Accountant in Canada in 1984 and became a fellow of the Certified General Accountants' Association in 2003. She started her career with Sun Life of Canada in 1976 in Montreal, Canada. She joined the M&G Group in 1981, where she held several management roles, including Senior Vice President and Controller for both life and health and property and casualty businesses throughout North America.

Ann Godbehere joined Swiss Re in 1996, following the acquisition of the Mercantile & General Reinsurance Group. She then held a number of senior positions in Swiss Re Life & Health North America, the last of which being Chief Executive Officer of Swiss Re Life & Health Canada. From 1998 - 2001, she was the Chief Financial Officer of the Life & Health Business Group, based in London. Immediately prior to becoming Group CFO, she was Chief Financial Officer of the Property & Casualty Business Group.

Ann Godbehere is also a board member of IMD, the Swiss based international business school.

June 2006