

Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation moves to a new headquarters

22 Mar 1999 CET Press Release

Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation has moved its corporate headquarters from midtown Manhattan to its own building in Armonk, New York.

Located 20 miles north of New York City in Westchester County, the new 300,000 square foot building stands on a 127-acre wooded site. The company is relocating its corporate headquarters in three phases beginning on March 22nd through April 19th.

Sara Fox, Senior Vice President Corporate Communications and Services observed that our campus setting and open office environment will foster higher levels of communication and teamwork. With expanded meeting and training facilities as well as an employee fitness center, we have built an attractive work environment for our staff.

The new building is equipped with the latest advances in information technology. Swiss Res new claims and underwriting workstations are designed to utilise technology to enhance our service and responsiveness to client needs.

Heidi Hutter, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer said, the Armonk headquarters offers Swiss Re room to expand client services. We look forward to greeting our clients and business partners at our new headquarters.

The company's new address is 175 King St., Armonk New York 10504. The toll-free headquarters telephone number is 877 SWISSRE. The company fax number is (914) 828-7000.