

Swiss Re Americas Division names Peter Emblin head of its Global & National unit

13 Feb 2002

Swiss Re has appointed Peter Emblin head of the Global & National unit for its Americas Division's US Direct operations. The Americas Division is Swiss Re's property and casualty reinsurance business unit for all of the Americas, headquartered in Armonk, NY. Mr. Emblin reports to Patrick Mailloux, head of US Direct and Canada for the Americas Division.

In his new post, Mr. Emblin is responsible for managing the property and casualty underwriting activities for the international operations of Swiss Re's US-based clients.

"Peter brings a tremendous amount of underwriting experience and expertise to this very challenging role," said Andreas Beerli, Americas' chief executive officer. "He is an example of Swiss Re's unwavering commitment to the development of extremely talented, high-energy, results-oriented professionals."

Mr. Emblin, who has extensive experience in the property and casualty business in the US, Germany, Spain, Latin America and the Caribbean, joined Swiss Re in 1996 as casualty treaty underwriter in the newly-formed Global & National department. Most recently he was the head of one of Global & National's largest client teams.

Prior to joining Swiss Re, Mr Emblin held various positions both in the US and Europe for Munich Re, including the management of treaty portfolios for global clients at the company's US branch.

Swiss Re is one of the world's leading reinsurers with over 70 offices in more than 30 countries. In the 2000 financial year, gross premium volume amounted to CHF 26.1 billion (USD 15.4 billion) and the net income after tax reached CHF 3 billion (USD 1.8 billion). Swiss Re is rated "Aaa" by Moody's, "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "A++" by A.M. Best.
