

Swiss Re opens a representative office in Shanghai

21 Nov 1996 CET Press Release

Swiss Re has received the approval from the authorities of the People's Republic of China to open a representative office in Shanghai.

This will be the Company's second representation in the PRC, after Beijing, which opened in early 1996. The Shanghai office will further strengthen Swiss Re's relationships with local insurance companies by providing on-the-spot service and expertise. The operation in Shanghai will bring Swiss Re's growing representation in the Asia Pacific region to ten offices.
