Munich, 21 July 2006 – Swiss Re has appointed Thomas Witting as ordinary Board Member of Swiss Re Germany AG. He will head Swiss Re's business for Central, Eastern and Northern Europe with direct market responsibility for Germany, Nordic and Baltic countries. Thomas Witting, currently Head Underwriting Hub Munich, will assume his new responsibilities as of 1 August 2006.

Thomas Witting (48) started his career with Swiss Re in 1987, holding various positions in Underwriting. 1996 he was Managing Director at Swiss Re Ireland Ltd. Since his return to Munich in September 1998, he has been in charge of client management for the German market. In 2005 he was appointed as Deputy Board Member of Swiss Re Germany AG.

Thomas Witting will succeed Ludger Arnoldussen, who has decided to pursue new career opportunities outside of Swiss Re and who will step down from his market responsibilities and Chief Executive Officer position of Swiss Re Germany AG as of 31 July 2006.

Udo Martinsohn, Head of the Management Unit Austria, Central and Eastern Europe will assume responsibility as Chief Executive Officer of Swiss Re Germany AG in addition to his existing responsibilities as Chief Executive Officer of Swiss Re Germany Holding AG.

Notes to editors

Cautionary note on forward-looking statements

Certain statements contained herein are forward-looking. These statements provide current expectations of future events based on certain assumptions and include any statement that does not directly relate to a historical fact or current fact. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by words or phrases such as "anticipate", "assume", "believe", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "foresee", "intend", "may increase" and "may fluctuate" and similar expressions or by future or conditional verbs such as "will", "should", "would" and "could". These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause Swiss Re's actual results, performance, achievements or prospects to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or prospects expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, among others:

- the impact of future investments, acquisitions or dispositions, and any delays, unexpected costs or other issues experienced in connection with any such transaction, including the ability to efficiently and effectively integrate the GE Insurance Solutions operations into our own;
- cyclicalities of the reinsurance industry;
- changes in general economic conditions, particularly in our core markets;
- uncertainties in estimating reserves;
- the performance of financial markets;
- expected changes in our investment results as a result of the changed composition of our investment assets or changes in our investment policy;
- the frequency, severity and development of insured claim events;
- acts of terrorism and acts of war;
- mortality and morbidity experience;
- policy renewal and lapse rates;
- changes in rating agency policies or practices;
- the lowering or withdrawal of one or more of the financial strength or credit ratings of one or more of our subsidiaries;
- changes in levels of interest rates;
- political risks in the countries in which we operate or in which we insure risks;
- extraordinary events affecting our clients, such as bankruptcies and liquidations;
- risks associated with implementing our business strategies;
- changes in currency exchange rates;
- changes in laws and regulations, including changes in accounting standards and taxation requirements; and
- changes in competitive pressures.

These factors are not exhaustive. We operate in a continually changing environment and new risks emerge continually. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly revise or update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
