Introduction

Swiss Re is committed to meeting its obligations to vendors, including timely payment for agreed goods/services. In order to meet this goal we ask all our vendors to comply with minimum requirements for orders and invoices.

We operate a Purchase Order process for our Mexican purchasing entities (Swiss Re Corporate Solutions Mexico Servicios, S. de R.L. de C.V., Swiss Re Corporate Solutions México Seguros, S.A. de C.V., Swiss Re México Servicios, S. de R.L. de C.V.). For these entities, please follow instructions in this document.

We thank you in advance for your co-operation.

Purchase Order Instructions

It is very important that you have a Purchase Order number (PO) from Swiss Re at the time of receiving our order for services or goods. If you do not receive a Purchase Order, please contact your Swiss Re partner.

Invoice Instructions

Send invoices via email – a list of central delivery email addresses along with contact details to local Finance team in the event of any queries or being unable to email invoices can be found on page 4.

Missing details may result in delays or invoices being returned for correction and resubmission.

Payment terms are applied from the invoice date.
Our standard payment terms are 30 days.

For prompt payment, please ensure that all invoices include the following:

- The appropriate Purchase Order number
- The legal name and address of the Swiss Re entity purchasing the goods/services (as per the order)
- The name of the Swiss Re contact person in respect of the goods/services
- A clear description of the goods and/or the services purchased
- Billing in the currency stated in the Purchase Order
- Your organization's current address and bank details (bank account in IBAN format and name of the bank and SWIFT/BIC code)
- Your BID and VAT number (if not applicable, please state that your organization is not VAT registered)
- Refer to Swiss Re's BID and VAT numbers (as stated in this document)
- If otherwise agreed in the contract, any non-standard Payment negotiated terms should be indicated on each invoice. This will be used to check against order / contract information.
