

Swiss Re opens a representative office in Beijing

5 Jan 1996 CET Press Release

Swiss Re has received permission from authorities in the People's Republic of China to open a representative office in Beijing.

The Beijing office, which will begin operations in a few weeks, will strengthen Swiss Re's relationships in the marketplace by providing on-the-spot expertise. This outpost is the Company's seventh office in Asia and represents a great leap forward for Swiss Re's strategy in this region.
